

Target Goal Planner

The diagram is a vertical flowchart within a rectangular frame. At the top, a grey header contains the title 'Target Goal Planner'. Below the header, a dotted line separates it from the main content. A series of grey dots leads from a target icon at the bottom to a game controller icon, then to a person at a computer icon, and finally to a cluster of dots at the top. Three grey rounded rectangular boxes are connected to the icons by dotted lines. The bottom-most box is connected to the target icon and contains the text 'Target goal:'. The middle box is connected to the game controller icon and contains the text 'Possible whim:'. The top-most box is connected to the person at a computer icon and contains the text 'Plan:'. Each text label is followed by three horizontal lines for writing.
